This program will examine NYS Social Services law 104-B and set forth best practices guidelines for dealing with New York State's Office of the Medicaid Inspector General and its' third-party recovery agency Health Management Systems, Inc. (HMS.) This program will review extensive case law, both before and after Ahlborn, and will discuss:

- the injured party and their attorney's obligations relative to serving the "notice of the commencement";
- the claim to recovery of "capitation payments";
- the definitions within Social Services Law 104 B in the context of Social Services law 367, and 369
- what is required of the State or County as a prerequisite to the enforcement of the "lien."
- the mandatory application of Ahlborn and EMS v Wos
- rights of the county under Social Services Law Section 104
- Claims against an Estate
- CMS memoranda
- NYS Memoranda
