This program will provide critical information about New York State’s new Paid Family Leave Benefits Law, which becomes effective on January 1, 2018. Learn which employers are covered, which employees are eligible, what benefits will be available and under what circumstances, how benefits will be funded, how it differs from disability or Family Medical Leave Act leave, and whether it provides job protection, among other things. You’ll learn the ins and outs of the required notices, payroll deductions, benefit amounts, and what your firm (or your client) should be doing to get ready for this new program.
