

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER OF THE
CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE OF THE COURTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me, at the direction of the Chief Judge, and consistent with the Governor's determination approving the easing of restrictions on commerce imposed due to the COVID-19 health emergency, I hereby direct that, effective July 27, 2020, notwithstanding the terms of any prior administrative order, the following procedures and protocols shall apply to the conduct of residential and commercial foreclosure matters before the New York State courts:

1. Stay of Commencement and Enforcement of Commercial Foreclosure Matters: Consistent with Executive Order 202.28, "[t]here shall be no initiation of a proceeding or enforcement of ... a foreclosure of any ... commercial mortgage, for nonpayment of such mortgage, owned ... by someone that is eligible for unemployment insurance or benefits under state or federal law or otherwise facing financial hardship due to the COVID-19 pandemic" for a period ending on August 19, 2020.
2. Filing and Service: Filing and service of process in residential and commercial foreclosure proceedings shall continue as set forth in Administrative Order AO/121/20 (Exh. A), as amended.
3. Procedures in Pending and Newly-Filed Matters: Except insofar as a matter may be stayed or otherwise governed by Governor Cuomo's Executive Orders 202.8, 202.14, 202.28, 202.38, and 202.48, residential and commercial foreclosure matters may proceed as set forth below.
4. Conferences:
  - a. Prior to conducting any further proceedings in any foreclosure matter, the court must initiate a status or settlement conference (including, where applicable, a settlement conference pursuant to CPLR Rule 3408). If any party does not appear at the conference, the court shall reschedule and make a second attempt to hold the conference before undertaking further proceedings.
  - b. At the conference, the court shall review the procedural history of the matter; confirm compliance with notice requirements, inquire into the effects, if any, that the COVID-19 pandemic has had upon the parties; review any special relief under state or federal law to which the parties may be entitled in light of the pandemic; refer unrepresented parties to local civil legal service providers and housing counseling agencies; assess any pending and anticipated motions; approve briefing schedules proposed by stipulation of the parties; and use best efforts (including referral to alternative dispute resolution) to resolve any outstanding issues.

5. Remote Proceedings: Any foreclosure conference or proceeding will be conducted remotely to the fullest extent practicable.
6. Motions: Following the conference in a foreclosure matter, the court may (1) direct further briefing of any motion as needed, and (2) issue a decision on any motion, including a motion for foreclosure and sale. Pending and newly-filed motions may be considered and decided in all foreclosure matters -- including residential and commercial matters, matters in which one or both parties are self-represented, and matters commenced prior to and during the COVID-19 pandemic. In ordering relief in a commercial foreclosure matter, the court shall stay enforcement if and as required under Executive Orders 202.28, 202.48, and related Executive Orders.
7. Auctions:
  - a. Continued Suspension of Auctions: No auction or sale of property in any residential or commercial foreclosure matter shall be scheduled to occur prior to October 15, 2020.
  - b. Assessment of Auction Practices: Prior to September 1, 2020, the appropriate administrative judge for civil matters in each judicial district shall develop appropriate procedures and protocols for the safe and healthful conduct of such auctions within their districts in light of the COVID-19 pandemic.
8. Other Applications and Hearings: Courts may entertain other applications in foreclosure matters, including but not limited to post-judgment applications. Where necessary, courts may also conduct hearings, including but not limited to good-faith hearings pursuant to CPLR 3408(f). All such hearings will be conducted remotely to the fullest extent practicable.
9. This order shall not affect procedures for the filing and service of essential matters, and otherwise supersedes the provisions of any Administrative Order inconsistent with its terms.

EXHIBIT A

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER OF THE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me, at the direction of the Chief Judge, and consistent with the Governor's determination approving the easing of restrictions on commerce imposed due to the COVID-19 health emergency, I hereby direct that, effective June 10, 2020:

1. In courts and case types approved for electronic filing through the New York State Courts Electronic Filing System (NYSCEF), represented parties must commence new matters or proceed in pending matters exclusively by electronic filing through NYSCEF, and must file and serve papers in such matters (other than service of commencement documents) by electronic means through NYSCEF or, where permitted under NYSCEF court rules, by mail. Unrepresented parties must file, serve and be served in such matters by non-electronic means unless they expressly opt in to participate in NYSCEF.
2. To the extent that NYSCEF electronic filing is unavailable in courts or case types in the trial courts, represented parties must commence new matters exclusively by mail, except where otherwise authorized by the Chief Administrative Judge. Following commencement of a new matter, and in pending matters, represented parties must file papers through the Unified Court System's Electronic Document Delivery System (EDDS) or by mail, and must serve papers (other than commencement documents) by electronic means or by mail. Unrepresented parties must file, serve and be served in such matters by non-electronic means unless they provide written notification to the court and all parties that they wish to file, serve and be served electronically.
3. This order shall not affect procedures for the filing and service of papers in essential matters.
4. The court shall not request working copies of documents in paper format.
