Moving BEYOND "White Fragility":
Honest, Effective Conversations About Race after May 14th
August 24, 2022

12:45 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. (this program includes two fifteen-minute breaks)

In-Person Workshop being held at the BAEC, Sunroom Auditorium, 438 Main St., Buffalo, NY

3.5 CLE credits: 2.0 Diversity, Inclusion & Elimination of Bias, 1.5 Ethics

(full program appropriate for experienced attorneys, 1.5 ethics appropriate for newly admitted attorneys)

Black writer Nanette D. Massey of Buffalo believes we are way beyond holding hands when it comes to talking about race. Massey will present her take on the book "White Fragility: Why It's so Hard for White People to Talk About Racism" by Robin DiAngelo. Attendees will have the chance to contextualize race from an unfiltered, real-world experience rather than theory. With frankness and practicality, Massey's goal is to leave audiences with self-clarity and the ability to participate in conversations within their own personal spheres of influence with genuine confidence, humor and humility. Participants will discuss May 14th and what led up to the tragedy. Participants are encouraged to read White Fragility before the session.
