APPOINTMENT OF SUPERVISING JUDGE SUPREME COURT CIVIL DIVISION

Hon. John Licata has been named the Supervising Judge of the Supreme Court Civil Division for the Eighth Judicial District.

In consultation with Chief Administrative Judge Joseph A. Zayas, First Deputy Chief Administrative Judge Norman St. George, Deputy Chief Administrative Judge James P. Murphy, and Presiding Judge Gerald J. Whalen of the Fourth Department Appellate Division, Hon. Kevin M. Carter, Administrative Judge of the Eighth Judicial District, announces the appointment of Hon. John B. Licata as Supervising Judge of the Supreme Court Civil Division of the Eighth Judicial District.

Since joining the bench, Justice Licata has been a leader. He commenced his term and immediately offered ways in which we could make the Eighth Judicial District better for all. Justice Licata has taken on a leadership role in implementation of programs to assist our justices and to maximize efficiency and productivity. Additionally, he recognizes the importance of our justice initiatives and continues to foster its outreach. Justice Licata will do a wonderful job in his capacity as Supervising Judge.

We welcome Justice Licata to the role of Supervising Judge.
