telecommunications number or other electronic mail address as filed with the secretary of the Association. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such notice shall not be deemed to have been given by facsimile telecommunications or electronic mail (a) if the Association is unable to deliver two consecutive notices to the member by facsimile telecommunications or electronic mail or (b) the Association otherwise becomes aware that notice cannot be delivered to the member by facsimile telecommunications or electronic mail. Such notice shall be considered given by mail if printed in any newspaper or similar publication which is published by the Association and mailed to all of the members of the Association within the time permitted for sending notice by mail as provided above in this paragraph. Whenever the Association has more than five hundred members, such notice may be served by publication in a newspaper published in Erie County, New York, once a week for three successive weeks next preceding the date of the meeting, provided that the Association shall also prominently post notice of such meeting on the homepage of any website maintained by the Association continuously from the date of publication through the date of the meeting. The Executive Director shall serve written notice of any special meeting indicating the place, date and hour of the meeting, and the purpose of such meeting, in the same manner permitted for service of the notice of the Annual Meeting.
4. QUORUM OF MEETINGS FOR MEMBERS. One hundred members entitled to cast votes, or one-tenth of the total number of votes entitled to be cast, whichever is less, present in person or by proxy (as permitted in Section 8 of this Article) at any meeting of the members of the Association shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business provided, however, that the presence of a member by proxy shall only be considered in determining a quorum for the limited purpose of voting upon the election, resolution or amendment to these Bylaws to which the proxy specifically relates, and such member may not be considered present in determining a quorum for the transaction of any other business. If no quorum is present, the members present may recess the meeting from time-to-time until a quorum is present.

8. VOTING BY MEMBERS BY PROXY. A member may vote at a meeting of members by authorizing the Executive Director, or any other person designated by the Board, to act for him or her by proxy as hereinafter provided. Such proxy shall be in writing in a form provided by the Executive Director and approved by the Board, shall recite the names of the nominees for director or officer, or text of the resolutions or amendments to these Bylaws, to be considered by the meeting to which it shall relate, and shall indicate how the members so voting authorizes the person, acting for him or her by proxy, to vote for directors and officers, and whether the member so voting authorizes the person, acting for him or her by proxy, to vote in favor of or against each of such resolutions or amendments, or to abstain in regard to any such votes. Such proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its being exercised by the member issuing it and, further, shall be revoked by the death of such member or, by receipt of the Executive Director prior to such proxy being exercised, of a written notice of an adjudication of incompetence of such member. Such proxy shall only relate to a specific Annual Meeting or specific special meeting of the Association and shall terminate at the conclusion of such meeting or at the conclusion of the adjourned meeting thereof.

The Judiciary Committee shall evaluate all persons whom the Association must rate for judicial office or whom, in its discretion, it chooses to rate, and shall report its determination of the rating of the applicant to the Board.

4. JUDICIAL RATING PROCEDURE.

(A) The Judiciary Committee shall request all persons who are to be rated for judicial office to submit a completed written questionnaire which shall also constitute an application for judicial rating. Any such questionnaire submitted by an individual who is then an officer or director of the Association shall not be considered by the Committee until a written resignation executed by such individual, reciting his or her immediately effective resignation as such officer or director, shall have been tendered to the Board.

(B) The questionnaire shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Board from time-to-time. The failure of an applicant to submit a questionnaire may be considered in evaluating the applicant and given such weight as the Committee or Board, as the case may be, deems appropriate.

(C) Applications for judicial ratings are to be submitted no later than the date set forth in the questionnaire referred to herein. This condition may be waived by the Committee for good cause shown.

(D) The presence of fifteen members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum of the transaction of business.

(E) The judicial rating of an applicant shall include, but not be limited to, the consideration of the following criteria:

- (i) Integrity
- (ii) Experience
- (iii) Professional Ability
- (iv) Education
- (v) Reputation
- (vi) Industry
- (vii) Temperament
- (viii) Fairness
- (ix) Statutory Standards
- (x) Attitude
- (xi) Punctuality

and such other information as necessary to evaluate the applicant.

(F) The Committee, upon completing its evaluation of an applicant, shall make a determination as to a rating for such applicant. The rating determinations are to be as follows:

- Rating: "Outstanding"
- Rating: "Well Qualified"
- Rating: "Qualified"
- Rating: "Not Recommended"

(G) A rating shall be determined by secret ballot and shall require the following votes of the Committee:

- Rating: "Outstanding": Eighty percent of the Committee members present and voting.
- Rating: "Well Qualified": Sixty-seven percent of the Committee members present and voting.
- Rating: "Qualified" and "Not Recommended": Simple majority of the committee members are present and voting.

The Committee shall continue to vote on a rating for an applicant until a rating is determined in accordance with the above-stated percentages.

(H) An applicant who receives the rating "Not Recommended" shall be so notified, by any reasonable means determined by the Committee, at least two days in advance of the date determined by the Committee for the release of such rating for publication. Such applicant may request reconsideration of the rating within the time and in the manner established by the Committee. The Board shall promulgate procedures for such reconsideration, which shall include among other things a mechanism whereby the applicant's request for reconsideration is first presented to the Committee, which will make recommendations to the Board in accordance with the Board's procedures for reconsideration. The Board shall then, at a meeting at which no less than twelve Board members shall be present, make a final determination of the rating of such applicant. Any change by the Board on such reconsideration to any rating of the Committee shall require the affirmative vote of at least twelve Board members. No public announcement of the rating shall be made until two days after the applicant has been notified of the rating or of the results of any reconsideration. At any time prior to the date fixed for publication of the rating, the applicant may withdraw his or her application for a rating upon the execution of a written instrument on a form, the contents of which have been prescribed by the Board, withdrawing his or her candidacy for that judicial office and agreeing not to accept appointment thereto. Each applicant receiving such a rating shall promptly be provided with the prescribed form, the procedure for requesting reconsideration, and the date upon which the rating will otherwise be published. Upon the execution of such written instrument withdrawing his or her candidacy, the rating of the applicant shall not be published. If the applicant fails to execute such written instrument, the Committee, after the expiration of the two day period following notice to the applicant of the rating or the result of the reconsideration, as the case may be, shall publish the rating.

(I) When notifying an applicant that he or she has received a rating of “Not Recommended” the Committee shall give the applicant a written general explanation of the factors underlying such rating. This explanation shall be sufficiently general so as to protect the confidentiality of all who gave information pertinent to the rating or participated in any deliberations thereon. The Committee shall not make public the said explanation unless, in the judgment of the Committee, such public release is necessary to protect the reputation of the Association, or the integrity of the judicial rating process, or its acceptance by the public.

(J) All discussions and proceedings of the Committee concerning candidates, shall be held in the strictest confidence by each member of the Committee, and shall not be discussed at any time with any person not a member of the Committee except as may otherwise be required by applicable law. Any member of the Committee charged with a breach of this requirement of confidentiality may be suspended by the Chair of the Committee pending an investigation, hearing and recommendation by a subcommittee consisting of the President of the Association, the Chair of the Committee and the Board’s liaison to the Committee. After the subcommittee members have made their recommendation to the Board, final action shall be taken by the Board which may in its discretion remove such Committee member and choose a replacement for such member.

5. JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE AND PROCEDURE.

(A) The Association, in accordance with procedures established by the Board, may periodically solicit from the members of the Association written performance evaluations of sitting judges, except town and village justices, and of all family court hearing examiners and Supreme Court matrimonial referees. The performance evaluation ratings shall be as follows:

Rating: S - Satisfactory
Rating: I - Improvement Needed (with specific recommendations)
Rating: U - Unsatisfactory

(B) The Board shall review the results of any such evaluations and take such action thereon as it deems appropriate.

6. RECUSAL OF DIRECTORS AND JUDICIARY COMMITTEE MEMBERS.

(A) No director or Judiciary Committee member who has within the last year endorsed a candidate in his or her efforts to attain judicial office through financial contribution or in any other manner, shall participate in the rating of such candidate or any candidate running in opposition thereto. For purposes of this Section 6, the term "year" shall mean the period beginning with the day after the most recent Election Day in November through Election Day in the following November.

(B) No member of the Committee or the Board shall take part in the interview, deliberations or shall vote concerning a candidate where there exists a conflict of interest, or the appearance of a conflict of interest. Each Committee and Board member is under an obligation to disclose his or her personal and professional relationship or other potential conflicts of interest with the candidates to be evaluated and may recuse him or herself from participation with regard to such candidate(s). A Committee or Board member who practices with a candidate in a law firm or other legal organization shall recuse him or herself from the proceedings with regard to that candidate. If the nature of the relationship between the candidate and the Committee or Board member is such that it would create the appearance of a conflict of interest if that member were involved in the evaluation of other candidates for the same judicial office, then such member should also recuse him or herself from the proceedings with regard to such other candidates. In the absence of recusal, a vote of a majority of the Committee or Board members present (excluding the member at issue) shall be required to disqualify a Committee member from participating concerning a particular candidate(s) on the ground that there exists the appearance of a conflict of interest.
